BENOIT & CZARNECKI NAMED 2007 REGIONAL CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR

Newtown Square, PA – January 25, 2007 – Benoit & Czarnecki Design/Construction, LLC wins the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) 2007 Regional Contractor of the Year (CotY) award. The winning project, an extensive basement renovation in Villanova won the category of Residential Interior Over $100,000.

“Benoit & Czarnecki is delighted to earn the NARI 2007 Regional Contractor of the Year award,” said Jim Benoit, Construction Manager. “We take great pride in our work and strive to deliver the very best products and services to our clients.”

Contractors from seven regions around the country vie for CotY awards on an annual basis. From the Regional winners, an overall winner is selected and presented with the National CotY award. The NARI Evening of Excellence banquet is held in Austin, Texas this coming March 2007. An impartial panel of sixteen judges who are experts within the industry and associated fields, worked for two days reviewing almost 500 entries. Judging is based on problem solving, functionality, aesthetics, craftsmanship, innovation, degree of difficulty, and the entry presentation.

“We are very honored to be selected among so many qualified firms,” said John Czarnecki, Operations Manager. “This is our first Regional NARI award. We have won the local DelChester NARI chapter awards multiple times. Our close working relationship with the homeowners and designer enabled this free form project to begin with only a rough plan and blossom dramatically. The winning project can be seen on our web site under the heading of Villanova III. The space was once an unused and dreary basement, now it is a very warm and comfortable space for our clients to enjoy.”
