Benoit & Czarnecki Appear In Remodelers' Journal

Newtown Square, PA – June 1, 2004 – Benoit & Czarnecki Design/Construction, LLC a member of the DelChester Chapter of NARI (National Association of the Remodeling Industry) make the pages of the Remodelers' Journal. Benoit & Czarnecki are apart of the featured story about the Remodeling magazines Big50 class of 2004. The cover story congratulates the NARI members who have been selected to the Big50.

“Not only has it been a great honor to be selected to Remodeling magazine’s Big50 for Industry Impact for 2004, but also to be recognized by Remodelers' Journal for the accomplishment,” said Jim Benoit, Construction Manager. “We have worked hard to help raise the bar in the remodeling industry. All too often sub-par service and work give our industry a bad name. Industry trendsetters like NARI and Remodeling magazine help to develop and grow the industry through certifications, contests, standards of ethics, reporting the relevant news, and creating a central location for the culture of the industry to grow. We are pleased to be recognized by them both.”

The Remodelers' Journal is a NARI quarterly industry publication. It reports on the remodeling industry and covers topics such as, local NARI chapter news, tool reviews, marketing strategies, business management, national remodeling news, and acts as a National Member directory.
